

Statement for Self-Certified Sophisticated Investor

I declare that I am a self-certified sophisticated investor for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act (Financial Promotion) Order 2005.

I understand that this means: (a) I can receive financial promotions that may not have been approved by a person authorised by the Financial Services Authority; (b) the content of such financial promotions may not conform to rules issued by the Financial Services Authority; (c) by signing/making this statement I may lose significant rights; (d) I may have no right to complain to either of the following:- (i) the Financial Services Authority; or (ii) the Financial Ombudsman Scheme; and (e) I may have no right to seek compensation from the Financial Services Compensation Scheme.

I am a self-certified sophisticated investor because at least one of the following applies:-

(a) I am a member of a network or syndicate of business angels and have been so for at least the last six months prior to the date of this declaration; (b) I have made more than one investment in an unlisted company in the two years prior to the date of this declaration; (c) I am working, or have worked in the two years prior to the date of this declaration, in a professional capacity in the private equity sector, or in the provision of finance for small and medium enterprises; (d) I am currently, or have been in the two years prior to the date of this declaration, a director of a company with an annual turnover of at least £1 million.

I accept that I can lose my property and other assets from making investment decisions based on financial promotions.

I am aware that it is open to me to seek advice from someone who specialises in advising on investments.
